Terms of Sale

Prices are in U.S dollars. When applicable, we must charge sales tax. Unless otherwise stated, standard domestic shipping is at no charge. International shipping charges vary. All shipments are insured.

To order send us an email (info@read-em-again.com), or call on the telephone (703-580-6946)

Please don't order through our website for this catalog sale; we don't have it set to discount your purchases. (You can still use the links to read an expanded description or view additional images for most items.) Our preferred way of payment for this sale is PayPal (we'll send you a PayPal invoice), but we can also accept checks, money orders, and direct credit card payments. Bank transfers are accepted but will incur an additional fee.

Sorry . . . no additional trade discounts for this sale.

Institutions, established customers, and ABAA members may be invoiced; all others are asked to prepay. We appreciate institutional constraints when it comes to complying with acquisition rules, dealing with foundations, and courting donors, so we're always willing to hold items for a reasonable time you to meet organizational purchasing, funding, and billing requirements.

Any item may be returned for full refund for any reason if the return is initiated within ten days of a purchaser's receipt and the item arrives back to us in the same condition as when originally shipped. Prior notice of any return is appreciated. Return shipping costs will be paid by the buyer. All items are guaranteed as described. If a recognized authority finds an item or signature not to be genuine, the original purchaser may return the item at any time for a full refund including all shipping costs.

Matching Set of Jedidiah Morse's First Gazetteers: The American Gazetteer . . . Of the American Continent and A New Gazetteer of the Eastern Continent. Morse, Jedidiah.

Boston: S. Hall and Thomas & Andrews; Samuel Etheridge, 1797. First Edition. 8vo. Complete. The American Gazetteer has seven maps (six folding). The Eastern Continent has 17 folding maps (title page mistakenly calls for 18, but the instruction to the binder specifies only 17, all by title). Sound bindings; front hinge of The American Gazetteer has been neatly mended. All 24 maps are present; one, the "Map of the Northern Part of the United States" is missing a 1" x 2" rectangle at the bottom of the inside edge (likely removed during binding). Some of the maps have minor toning and wear to their edges. Cover wear, but still a nicely matched set.

Item #7550 Price: ~~$1800~~ $900

Item #7943 Price: ABAA Benevolent Fund Donation

Sketches of Virginia: Historical and Biographical. Foote, William Henry. Philadelphia: Willliam S. Martien, 1850. First edition of the first series. 8vo. Complete. 568 pages. Original blind debossed cover with gilt spine title. Sound binding with intact hinges. Clean pages. Some minor wear and slightly sunned spine. Although Foote wrote this volume at the request of the Virginia Presbyterian Church, it is also a chronicle focusing on the history of early American political development and the Scotch-Irish in America. Considerable information on the personalities and events of the Revolutionary War. See Sabin 25029 and Howes F241. (Howes mistakenly calls for a frontispiece, see Swann Auction of 02/10/05).
Item #7224 Price: ABAA Benevolent Fund Donation

Chronicles and Characters of the Stock Exchange (with Defoe's Anatomy of Exchange Alley as an Appendix). Francis, John and Daniel Defoe. Boston: Wm. Crosby & H.P. Nichols, 1850. First American Edition. "Previously published in the Banker's magazine for 1850." Ex-library with bookplate inside front cover and two handstamps on title page; withdrawn handstamp on the bookplate. Hinges cracked. Clean pages. Some wear, toning, and soiling. An important, classic history of the London Stock Exchange loaded with fascinating anecdotes including information on Tulip Mania, the Tontines, East India Company Stock, early dealers, corruption in Parliament, the South Sea Bubble, the Boston Tea Party, lotteries, frauds, and much more.
Item #7818 Price: ABAA Benevolent Fund Donation

Recollections of a Zouave before Sebastopol. Edited By Dr. Felix Maynard. Translated By Mrs. Harrison Robinson. Philadelphia: Hayes & Zell, 1856. First American Edition. 12mo. 300 text pages plus a four-page advertising catalog in rear dated July 1, 1856. Sound binding; front free endpaper excised. Clean pages with some light toning. Cover has some minor wear; gilt decorations with legible lettering. Personal memoir recounts the experience of a Zouave trumpeter in the Crimean War. In addition to discussions of camp life and combat, the narrative includes a short discussion of Florence Nightingale, the Sisters of Charity, and more information about medical services in general.
Item #7026 Price: ABAA Benevolent Fund Donation

The Present State of Virginia. Giving a Particular and Short Account of the Indian, English, and Negroe Inhabitants. . . .

Jones, Hugh. New York: Joesph Sabin, 1865. 8vo. Originally published in 1724. Unbound; top edges uncut. Collated and complete. Small engravings. Minor wear, heaviest at endpapers and title pages. "One of the most entertaining and informative accounts of Virginia and its people during the early eighteenth century . . . has long been a collector's item. Even the few copies that remain of the two hundred imprints by Joseph Sabin in 1865 have been retired to rare book rooms or vaults." – Mississippi Valley Historical Review. See Howes J- 216.

Item #6761 Price: SOLD

A Picture of the Desolated States; and the Work of Restoration, 1865-1868. Trowbridge, J. T. [John Townsend].

Hartford, CT: L. Stebbins, 1868. 8vo. Collated and complete. Sound binding; front hinge starting to split. A record of travels throughout the South in 1865 and early 1866 immediately following the Civil War. Originally published in shorter form as The South: A Tour of Its Battlefields and Ruined Cities. Trowbridge toured much of the defeated Confederacy during the summer of 1865 and the following winter. His detailed observations include interviews with freedmen, former rebels, farmers, businessmen, refugees, carpetbaggers, and scalawags. A surprisingly fair assessment by a somewhat biased Northerner.

Item #7886 Price: SOLD

Uncle Remus: His Songs and His Sayings: The Folk-Lore of the Old Plantation. Harris, Joel Chandler.

New York: D. Appleton and Company, 1881. Illustrated by Church, Frederick S. and James H. Moser. First Edition, 1st State. 12mo. Two tiny owners' bookplates inside the front cover. Minor cover wear.

Item #7557 Price: ~~$1,250~~ $625

The Hip and Its Diseases.* Gibney, Virgil P. New York and London: Bermingham & Company, 1884. First Edition. 12mo. Complete. 412 pages, 64 illustrations. Sound binding. Soiled endpapers. Some wear to cover and three leaves. This is Gibney's study of the treatment of hip disease that led to his firing from and subsequent return to and leadership of the oldest orthopedic hospital in the country, the New York Hospital for the Relief of the Ruptured and Crippled (now the Hospital for Special Surgery). In it, Gibney advocates for the use of Plaster of Paris, traction, and surgery in the treatment of orthopedic cases. All were a radical departure from the "expectant" treatment (fresh air, diet, exercise, and electrical stimulation) which had been historically provided at the facility.

Item #7932 Price: SOLD

The American Salmon Fisherman.* Wells, Henry P. New York: Harper & Brothers, 1886. First Edition. 12mo. Complete with four-page advertising catalog in rear. B/w frontispiece and map. Leaves:

Large Manuscript Leaf on Vellum - Divine Office - Liturgia Honorium – Psalms 78 . Europe: circa 1250. Intricately inscribed vellum leaf from a 13th century Divine Office Liturgia Honorium. Probably 13th century continental. Approximately 10" x 13". On quality vellum. The large gothic bookhand script (3 lines per inch) is in two columns of 30 lines. There are numerous three, two, and one-line majuscules in red and blue. Beautiful marginal designs on both sides. The leaf contains Psalms 78 (vulgate numbering) indicating that it was probably read during Advent/Christmas and Lent/Easter as it was one of three psalms often reserved for those seasons because they throw special light on the Old Testament history of salvation as the forerunner of its fulfillment in the New Testament. (See the Catholic Liturgical Library).

Documents, Letters, Speeches, etc.:

Admission of Kansas. Speech of Hon. W. Porcher Miles of South Carolina, in the House of Representatives, March 31, 1858. Washington: Congressional Globe Office, 1858. First Edition. Pamphlet. 8vo. 8 pages. Toned; previously bound. Miles succinctly states the Southern opinion regarding the admission of Kansas as a state, discussing legal concerns touching upon "bloody Kansas," "Free-Soilers," "Border Ruffians," the transportation of anti-slavery forces to Kansas by the New England Emigrant Aid Society, and the arming of the anti-slavery partisans with repeating rifles (funded by the prominent abolitionist minister, Henry Ward Beecher). Miles served on General Beauregard's staff and as a member of the Confederate Congress. Later as President of the University of South Carolina. Sabin 48943.

Documents Relating to the New York Contest . . . to Seats in the Charleston Convention. New York: J. W. Bell, 1860. First Edition. Pamphlet. 8vo. 24 pages. Light soiling; once bound. The 1860 Democratic Convention was the most discordant U. S. political convention ever held. The Democratic Party was divided between moderate northern supporters of Stephen Douglass willing to compromise with the Republicans on issues related to slavery in new territories, and the southern "fire-eaters" who demanded that the party adopt a plank with the wording of Dred Scott decision.

Speech of Hon. James H. Hammond, of South Carolina, on the Relations of States; Delivered in the Senate of the United States, May 21, 1860. Washington: Lemuel Towers, 1860. First Edition. Pamphlet. 8vo. 8 pages. Previously bound. Hammond's speech is a short exposition on the doctrine of "squatter sovereignty," that is, the action of importing new 'citizens' into a territory (in this case, Kansas) to influence the popular vote (in this case, admission to the Union as a free or slave state). Hammond is, perhaps, most famous for his "Cotton is King" speech on the Senate floor in 1858. I don't believe this is listed in Sabin.
